

A. Multiple Choice: (34 points—2 points each)

Answer the following multiple choice questions by marking the answer on your exam. These questions will be drawn from lecture, textbook and primary sources assigned. Please fill in the bubbles to the right of the questions as clearly as possible:

For example:

1. Who wrote a “Secret History” that mocked Emperor Justinian and his “consort” Theodora?
 - a. Muhammad
 - b. Einhard of Fulda
 - c. Procopius
 - d. Pope Gregory VII

B. Chronology: (36 points—6 points each)

Place the following SIX events in order from earliest [A] to latest [F] on this sheet. Then write a sentence or two in your Blue Book on the historical significance of the event. This could be in the form of explaining larger political and social trends such as setting the stage for future historical development or the advent of a specific empire or kingship Dates (exact or rough) and detailed information are useful in your answers.

C. Image Identification: (30 points—10 points each)

Write 3-4 sentences on the THREE of the 5 images flashing on the screen in your Blue Book. These images come directly from your Student Outlines found on the class website.

Your answer should:

- identify the object (what is the object “called”)
- explain roughly when it was created (date) and from which culture it originates
- provide a sentence or two on its historical significance
 - Why is this image important to helping scholars understand the civilization and what does it tell us?
