

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIPS

The University of Massachusetts Lowell Graduate School of Education will award 18 scholarships for the 2006-2007 academic year. These scholarships are restricted to students matriculated into degree programs at the UMass Lowell Graduate School of Education. Students who wish to be considered for these scholarships should complete the accompanying application form and submit it by April 14, 2006 to edoffice@uml.edu.

Recipients will be selected by scholarship committees of the Graduate School of Education. Awards will be announced May 11, 2006. Awards will be applied to reduce tuition and fee charges in the 2006-2007 academic year.

Name and Purpose of Fund	Anticipated Award FY2007	Degree Program
COLLEGE OF EDUCATION ALUMNI CENTENNIAL SCHOLARSHIP ENDOWMENT The purpose of this scholarship is to assist deserving students in furthering their education. Priority consideration is given to recent bachelor's degree recipients from UMass Lowell who have outstanding academic records, have financial need, and have been involved in community service.	$1,600	M.Ed.
MARY FRANCES HOGAN '26 ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP Established by Miss Hogan's family on the occasion of her 90th birthday. This fund will award an annual scholarship to a worthy student matriculated into a graduate education degree program at UMass Lowell. Scholarship selection will be based on academic record and commitment to teaching. Priority consideration will be given to teachers at, or graduates of, the Bartlett School in Lowell, where Miss Hogan taught for 39 years.	$600	M.Ed. or Ed.D.
Dr. CONSTANCE LANSEIGNE CASE '53 ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FUND For the benefit of students in the Master's degree program in Reading and Language Arts at UMass Lowell. Priority consideration given to academic record and financial need.	$500	M.Ed.-Reading
MARGARET HOLLAND BARRETT '58 ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP This is an endowed fund whose income shall be used to provide scholarship awards to students pursuing a teaching career. Priority consideration given to candidates with a record of outstanding academic achievement, financial need, and commitment over several years to family and the community	$2,600	M.Ed.
ZAHER-LACOUTURE ENDOWED FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP Established by Florence LaCouture '59 to honor her family, this scholarship recognizes a deserving doctoral student. Priority consideration is given to candidates at the dissertation stage who have financial need and have demonstrated a strong record of community service.	$1,000	Ed.D.
SOCRATES LAGIOS MEMORIAL ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP Established in 2003 to recognize outstanding prospective teachers of secondary school English, enrolled in the Graduate School of Education, who have demonstrated academic excellence and caring character attributes and who have financial need.	$500	M.Ed.-English
THE CONLON-DRAUCH FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP The Conlon-Drauch Family Scholarship was established in 2003 in memory of Mary Conlon '27 and Mary Jo Drauch '59. The scholarship is intended for an aspiring teacher candidate who is matriculated into the masters in education degree program at the University of Massachusetts Lowell. Selection will be based on academic record, financial need, and community service.	$700	M.Ed.

MURPHY-ROBERTS-MURPHY SCHOLARSHIP Established in 1987 by David E. and Sheila Gilbride-Greene in memory of their mothers, Winifred Murphy Greene '12 and Helen Roberts Gilbride '13. This scholarship is intended for deserving students who live in Lawrence or Lowell.	$500	M.Ed. or Ed.D.
CLASS OF 1962 EDUCATION SCHOLARSHIP Established in 2002 by alumni of Massachusetts State College at Lowell. To provide scholarship assistance to candidates entering elementary teaching with priority consideration to academic record, financial need and undergraduate education at UMass Lowell.	$500	M.Ed.-Elem.
VITO AND VASILIKI (ZIOGAS) SELVAGGIO SCHOLARSHIPS Established in 2003 to recognize outstanding graduates of UMass Lowell who have been admitted to a graduate program leading to education licensure. Priority consideration to academic record, financial need, community service and interest in music or elementary education.	$500	M.Ed.
THE E. DEWEY AND ROSE A. DYER ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP FUND Established in 2004 by Patricia '54 and James McPhail on the occasion of Pat's 50th college reunion, the scholarship is named in honor of Pat's parents, who were determined that their daughters obtain a college education. Selection is based on the applicant's academic excellence and financial need. Priority consideration will be given to candidates who are preparing to be, or who are, elementary teachers.	$1,500	M.Ed.-Elem.
MARY CURTIN ALDEN '60 ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP Established in 2004 by Mary and John Alden, the purpose of the scholarship is to encourage highly qualified candidates who have financial need to become elementary teachers. Selection is based on applicants record of academic excellence and financial need. Priority consideration will be given to candidates who are preparing to be, or who are, elementary teachers.	$1,000	M.Ed.-Elem.
JANE E. GOURLIS '69 MEMORIAL BOOK AWARD Established in 2005 by Charles P. Gourlis in memory of his wife, the purpose of this award is to help defray the cost of books for a deserving student at the Graduate School of Education. Jane Gourlis was a dedicated elementary teacher who never gave up on a student, no matter the circumstance. Selection will be based on evidence of financial need and demonstration of a caring commitment to all children. Priority consideration will be given to candidates who aspire to elementary teaching.	$250	M.Ed. or Ed.D.
M. VIRGINIA BIGGY EDUCATION FUND Established in 1989 in honor of the former Dean of the College of Education, this Fund supports an annual lecture by a distinguished educator. Following Dr. Biggy's death in January 2006, it was decided to award a scholarship in her memory this year. Priority consideration will be given to a doctoral student, enrolled in the Leadership in Schooling program, who has demonstrated the vision, capabilities and commitment to improve the quality of education for all children.	$1,000	Ed.D.
FITZPATRICK FAMILY SCHOLARSHIP Established in 2005 by Linda Mangan FitzPatrick '68, the scholarship is intended for a student who is enrolled in the "Fast Track to Teaching" program, has compiled an outstanding academic record, and has demonstrated financial need.	$500	M.Ed.

CLASS OF 1964 SCHOLARSHIP On the occasion of their 40th reunion, members of the class of 1964 donated funds to make possible scholarship awards in 2005 and 2006. The award is to recognize a teacher or prospective teacher who has demonstrated a strong commitment to teaching and who has financial need.	$1,400	M.Ed. or Ed.D.
PATRICIA A. SWIERK '98, '03 MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP This scholarship honors Patty Swierk, long time UMass Lowell staff member who changed careers to fulfill her dream of becoming a teacher.	$1,000	M.Ed.
CATHERINE J. MCARDLE '35 ENDOWED SCHOLARSHIP Established by the estate of Catherine J. McArdle, who for many years was the teaching principal of the former Rogerson School in Lowell. Preference is for a teacher studying to qualify for licensure as a school principal.	$1,000	M.Ed. or Ed.D.