April 30th and May 1st.

This conference, which is held under the auspices of the Renaissance Committee of the American Council of Learned Societies, is designed to bring together workers in varied disciplines in the period of the late fifteenth and sixteenth centuries.

Accommodations will be available at the Hotel Statler, Boston, if reservations are made by April 19th, through William A. Jackson, Houghton Library. Other hotel accommodations here are scarce and it is recommended that anyone who wishes to make his own reservations should do so immediately.
