THE NEW ENGLAND RENAISSANCE CONFERENCE

YALE UNIVERSITY

Friday and Saturday

23-24 April

1965
FRIDAY, APRIL 23

1:30 - 2:15 p.m. Registration, Foyer, Strathcona Hall.

2:30 - 3:45 p.m. "Young John Colet and the Olde Holye Cunynge Doctours." Bernard O'Kelley, Assistant Professor of English, Ohio State University. Auditorium, Strathcona Hall.

4:00 - 5:15 p.m. "Vita Erasmi usque ad Lutetiam." Roland Bainton, Titus Street Professor of Ecclesiastical History Emeritus, Yale University. Auditorium, Strathcona Hall.

5:30 - 6:45 p.m. Cocktails. Student Lounge, Hall of Graduate Studies.

7:00 - 8:00 p.m. Dinner. The President's Room, Woolsey Hall.

8:00 - 10:00 p.m. Special Exhibition and Reception. The Beinecke Rare Book and Manuscript Library.

SATURDAY, APRIL 24

9:30 - 10:00 a.m. Late Registration, Foyer, Strathcona Hall.

10:15 - 11:45 a.m. "Decus et Columna: The Reception of the Classical Tradition in Calvin's Commentary on the De Clementia of Seneca (1532) and its Implications for Calvin's Later Work." Ford Battles, Philip Schaff Professor of Church History, Hartford Theological Seminary. Auditorium, Strathcona Hall.

11:45 - 12:15 p.m. Business Meeting. Auditorium, Strathcona Hall.

12:30 - 1:30 p.m. Luncheon. The President's Room, Woolsey Hall.

2:00 - 3:00 p.m. "Parody, Emulation, Imitation: Some Aspects of the 16th Century Mass." Lewis Lockwood, Professor of the History of Music, Princeton University. Auditorium, Strathcona Hall.

3:15 - 4:15 p.m. Concert. Auditorium, Strathcona Hall.