THE NEW ENGLAND RENAISSANCE CONFERENCE
University of Rhode Island at Kingston
October 15-16, 1982
Clare M. Murphy, Department of English, Director

UNLESS OTHERWISE NOTED, ALL EVENTS TAKE PLACE IN THE UNIVERSITY CLUB.

FRIDAY, October 15

An Hispanic celebration in honor of the quadricentennial of the death of Santa Teresa de Ávila.

2:30 Registration

3:00 Renaissance, Mannerist, Baroque: Paradigms for Spanish Literature, with illustrations by A. David Kossouff, Brown University

4:00 The Spanish Illuminati Under the Shadow of the Inquisition by Augusta Espontoso Foley, University of Pennsylvania

5:00 Your Choice: A Stroll Across Campus

or

Liturgy for the Feast of Santa Teresa, in Spanish with readings in English: Reverend Antonio Martins, celebrant; Sister Joan Mahoney, CND, lector, Catholic Center Chapel

5:45-6:45 Cocktails  6:45 Dinner

8:30 Santa Teresa de Jesús and Spanish Popular Piety A feast of slides, with introduction and commentary by Lewis J. Hutton, University of Rhode Island, Meeting Room, the Catholic Center.

SATURDAY, October 16

9:15-10:00 Breakfast

10:00 Changing Attitudes Towards Marriage and Family Life in the Early English Renaissance by John K. Vost, University of Nebraska

11:00 Ippolito de' Medici, Humanist by Elissa Barbara Weaver, University of Chicago

12:00 Luncheon

1:30 Blank Verse Before Milton by O. B. Hardison, Jr., The Folger Shakespeare Library

2:30 The Testing of Love in the Comedies of Shakespeare and Calderón by Kenneth Muir, University of Liverpool

COFFEE