The musical score is written in treble clef with a 6/8 time signature. It consists of four staves of music, each with a measure number (1, 4, 6, 8) at the beginning. The lyrics are written below the notes. There are asterisks above the first and last notes of each staff. The lyrics are: "For all the things that you may do that all the ways that I can be that push my but - tons or in - make me blue in the push you near to in - san - i - ty in the year a - head that I spend with you, I for - year a - head that you spend with me, you'll for - give give you me now. now. So for For".
